Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 09 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Another breezy day with showers on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely dry evening in the west, but cloudier conditions in the east with a few lingering showers. After a dry spell more generally at first overnight, scattered showers will break out during the early hours along with strengthening winds. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Monday:
A breezy day with sunny spells and scattered showers. Showers could turn heavy and thundery at times with the best of the sunshine in the afternoon. Largely dry by evening. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Remaining unsettled and windy at times. Some sunny spells, although organised bands of showers merging into longer spells of rain at times too. Milder nights.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.